5: Suction part

6: Vibrating part

Feel the softness of the object.

Run it over your body.

You can activate the vibration mood and use it to touch your breasts, shoulders, belly, legs...

Let your sensations guide you and explore your feelings, your sensitivity.

It is not only the genitals that are erogenous, so it is important to take the time to stimulate each part of your body. This will help discover yourself and may even lead you to beautiful surprises along the way. You can take this exercise further by bringing in other objects to vary the sensations. Play hot/cold with ice cubes or bring some lightness with a feather duster. You can use any object that gives you a pleasant sensation.

Then, once Coco and your body have gotten to know each other a little better, you can move on to the clitoris...

Getting started

First of all, remember that the more time we take for ourselves, the more comfortable and relaxed we will be in our body and mind. And the better we will feel. Allow yourself to be present and take every inch of your body on the journey of self-discovery.

So first, take a moment to get comfortable. Light a candle, perfume the room, put on some music, close the shutters or turn on the lights... do whatever works for you.

And now, let's get going. ♥

...but take it slow, let's go little by little.
The most important thing is to make your desire rise.

So we suggest you first bring Coco near the external part of the clitoris while maintaining the vibrations. You can add a little lubricant on the vibrating part and just follow your sensations, move it across the zones that are pleasant to you, while varying the vibration modes. Move it up and down, from left to right. Touch the outer lips, the inner lips, the clitoris...

Then you can make it penetrate.

There are 10 different variations for each of the two modes.

It's up to you to let yourself be surprised...!

In this position you can turn on the suction mode of Coco and simply place it on the external part of your clitoris.

Just like with the vibrating part you can make it come and go on the different parts of your vulva according to the sensations.

This part is known to be extremely effective. ♥

And finally, you can use Coco's 2-in-1 function: having both the suction and vibration parts turned on.

Feel free to activate (or not) the different modes according to your sensations...

Just as for the other positions, don't hesitate to move it around, put it higher, lower, change the angle, apply pressure or not...

Trust your body and your sensations. ♥
